Provided that (a) there shall be deducted from any lumpsum or half-monthly payments to which the workman is entitled, the amount of any payment or allowance which the workman has received from the employer by way of compensation during the period of disablement prior to the receipt of such lumpsum or the first half-monthly payment, as the case may be; and

(b) no half-monthly payment shall in any case exceed the amount, if any, by which half the amount of the monthly wages of the workman before the accident exceeds half the amount of such wages which he is earning after the accident."

Amendment of Section 5.

5. In section 5 of the said Regulation,—

"for the words 'For the purpose of section 4, the monthly wages of a workmen' the words "In this Regulation, monthly wages mean the wages of a workman, by whatever period paid, and' shall be substituted."

(ii) after clause (a) the following clause shall be inserted, viz.,—

"(b) where the whole of the continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident during which the workman was in the service of the employer who is liable to pay the compensation was less than one month, the monthly wages of the workman shall be deemed to be the average monthly amount which, during the twelve months immediately preceding the accident, was being earned by a workman employed on the same work by the same employer, or, if there was no workman so employed, by a workman employed on similar work in the same locality ;"

(iii) clause (b) shall be re-lettered as clause (c), and

(iv) the proviso shall be omitted.

Amendment of Section 8.

6. In section 8 of the said Regulation:—

(a) for sub-sections (1) to (3), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely :—

"(1) No payment of compensation in respect of a workman whose injury has resulted in death, and no payment of a lumpsum as compensation to a woman or a person under a legal disability, shall be made otherwise than by deposit with the Commissioner, and no such payment made directly by an employer shall be deemed to be a payment of compensation :

Provided that, in the case of a deceased workman, an employer may make to any dependant advances on account of compensation not exceeding an aggregate of fifty rupees, and so much of such aggregate as does not exceed the compensation payable to that dependant shall be deducted by the Commissioner from such compensation and repaid to the employer.

(2) Any other sum amounting to not less than ten rupees which is payable as compensation may be deposited with the Commissioner on behalf of the person entitled thereto.

(3) The receipt of the Commissioner shall be a sufficient discharge in respect of any compensation deposited with him ;" and

(b) in sub-section (4) (i) after the words "under sub-section (1)" the words "as compensation in respect of a deceased workman" shall be inserted,

(ii) the words "shall deduct" shall be substituted for the words "may deduct," and

(iii) the word "twenty-five" shall be substituted for the word "fifty ;"

(c) for sub-section (5), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely :—

"(5) Compensation deposited in respect of a deceased workman shall, subject to any deduction made under sub-section (1), be apportioned among the dependants of the deceased workman or any of them in such proportion as the Commissioner thinks fit, or may, in the discretion of the Commissioner, be allotted to any one dependant.

(6) Where any compensation deposited with the Commissioner is payable to any person, the Commissioner shall, if the person to whom the compensation is payable is not a woman or a person under a legal disability, and may, in other cases, pay the money to the person entitled thereto.

(7) Where any lumpsum deposited with the Commissioner is payable to a woman or a person under legal disability, such sum may be invested, applied or otherwise dealt with for the benefit of the woman, or of such person during his disability, in such manner as the Commissioner may direct; and where a half-monthly payment is payable to any person under a legal disability, the Commissioner may, of his own motion or on an application made to him in this behalf, order that the payment be made during the disability to any dependant of the workman or to any other person whom the Commissioner thinks best fitted to provide for the welfare of the workman;" and

(d) sub-section (6) shall be re-numbered as sub-section (8); and

(e) after that sub-section the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

"(9) Where the Commissioner varies any order under sub-section (8) by reason of the fact that payment of compensation to any person has been obtained by fraud, impersonation or other improper means, any amount so paid to or on behalf of such person may be recovered in the manner hereinafter provided in section 30."

7. In section 10 of the said Regulation,— Amendment of Section 10.

(a) in sub-section (1), after the first proviso the following further proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

"Provided further that the want of or any defect or irregularity in a notice shall not be a bar to the maintenance of proceedings—

(a) if the claim is made in respect of the death of a workman resulting from an accident which occurred on the premises of the employer, or at any place where the workman at the time of the accident was working under the control of the employer or of any person employed by him, and the workman died on such premises or at such place, or on any premises belonging to the employer, or died without having left the vicinity of the premises or place where the accident occurred, or

(b) if the employer had knowledge of the accident from any other source at or about the time when it occurred;" and

(b) for sub-section (3) the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"(3) The Government may require that any prescribed class of employers shall maintain at their premises at which workmen are employed a notice-book, in the prescribed form, which shall be readily accessible at all reasonable times to any injured workman employed on the premises and to any person acting bona fide on his behalf.

(4) A notice under this section may be served by delivering it at, or sending it by registered post addressed to, the residence or any office or place of business of the person on whom it is to be served, or, where a notice-book is maintained, by entry in the notice-book."

Insertion of new Sections 10 A and 10B.

8. After section 10 of the said Regulation, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

Power to require from employers statements regarding fatal accidents.

"10A. (1) Where a Commissioner receives information from any source that a workman has died as a result of an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, he may send by registered post a notice to the workman's employer requiring him to submit, within thirty days of the service of the notice, a statement, in the prescribed form, giving the circumstances attending the death of the workman, and indicating whether, in the opinion of the employer, he is or is not liable to deposit compensation on account of the death.

(2) If the employer is of opinion that he is liable to deposit compensation, he shall make the deposit within thirty days of the service of the notice.

(3) If the employer is of opinion that he is not liable to deposit compensation, he shall in his statement indicate the grounds on which he disclaims liability.

(4) Where the employer has so disclaimed liability, the Commissioner, after such inquiry as he may think fit, may inform any of the dependants of the deceased workman that it is open to the dependants to prefer a claim for compensation, and may give them such other further information as he may think fit.

Reports of fatal accidents.

10B. (1) Where, by any law for the time being in force, notice is required to be given to any authority, by or on behalf of an employer, of any accident occurring on his premises which results in death, the person required to give the notice shall, within seven days of the death, send a report to the Commissioner giving the circumstances attending the death:

Provided that where the Government has so prescribed, the person required to give the notice may instead of sending such report to the Commissioner send it to the authority to whom he is required to give the notice.

(2) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, extend the provisions of sub-section (1) to any class of premises other than those coming within the scope of that sub-section, and may, by such notification, specify the persons who shall send the report to the Commissioner."

Amendment of Section 12.

9. In sub-section (2) of section 12 of the said Regulation after the words "the contractor" the following words shall be inserted:—

"or any other person from whom the workman could have recovered compensation and where a contractor who is himself a principal is liable to pay compensation or to indemnify a principal under this section he shall be entitled to be indemnified by any person standing to him in the relation of a contractor from whom the workman could have recovered compensation."

Insertion of new Section 17 A.

10. In Chapter II and after section 17 of the said Regulation, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—
